

The Irish Prison Service's Efforts to Reduce Domestic Violence in Ireland

Dr. Anne Mc Quaid

In the Republic of Ireland

One in five women experience some form of domestic violence.

Since 1996, 216 women have died violently. 56 % were murdered by a current or former male intimate partner.

Inaccuracies with Reporting Understating the Issue

In a sample of 100 sex crimes, 19 should have been recorded as domestic violence, only 1 was.

In a sample of 100 assault cases studied, 41 should have been described as domestic violence but only 19 were.

From the data we do know that there has been a 16% rise in recorded domestic violence incidents, from 7,860 in 2016 to 9,145 in 2017, representing a 57% increase on 2013 (5,864).

National Strategies

Cosc – The National Office for the Prevention of Domestic, Sexual and Gender-based Violence endeavours to ensure the delivery of a well co-ordinated ‘whole of Government’ response to domestic, sexual and gender-based violence.
