

HM Prison and Probation Service - Vacancies

HM Prison and Probation Service is an agency of the UK's Ministry of Justice working with its partners to carry out the sentences given by the courts, in both custody and community, and to reduce reoffending by supporting the rehabilitation of people in its care.

New organisational structures are being introduced to strengthen the senior leadership of the organisation and the Agency is looking to fill two new roles – Director General Prisons and Director General Probation & Wales to work with the Chief Executive of HMPPS on the delivery of strategic and operational plans for the Agency.

To find out more about these exciting and challenging senior leadership roles please go to:
